

UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES MANILA
Programs/Projects, Beneficiaries and Status of Implementation as of October 2017

KRA: Poverty Reduction and Empowerment of the Poor	TITLE	PROPONENT	BENEFICIARIES	FUNDING SOURCE	STATUS	OUTPUT
	Provision of health care for sick, indigent patients	PGH	Poor Filipinos numbering about half a million/year	National govt and donors	ongoing	605,331 outpatient and inpatient indigent Filipinos granted quality care in 2016 broken down into: Outpatients – 482,887, Inpatients – 49,055; Emergency Care – 73,389
	Volunteer programs, such as medical and surgical missions, health trainings, tutorials, streetchildren program, immersion program, relief missions, etc	UPM Ugnayan ng Pahinungod	Remote, impoverished and underserved communities	UP Manila and partner institutions	ongoing	Increased capabilities of and empowered communities provided with knowledge and skills on health, livelihood, and Education; around 56 communities served by 2,456 volunteers
	Democratized access to a UP Manila education thru the ff programs: Regionalization Program of the UP College of Medicine, School of Health Sciences	UP Manila	Poor and deserving students from the provinces		ongoing	About 20% of students admitted to different UPM colleges under these programs go back to their communities of origin to serve
	Provision of tuition subsidies and allowances to students through the Socialized Tuition System	UP System	Poor and deserving students from low-income brackets	UP System	ongoing	3,159 students granted tuition discounts from 50 to 100% & monthly stipends, 1st sem AY 2016-2017 and 3,153 for 2 nd sem
		UP Manila	Poor and needy students	UP Manila	ongoing	A total of 2,345 students granted loans amounting to more than P30 million for AY 2016-2017
	Provision of tuition benefits to employees and their dependents for enrolment in UP campuses	UP Manila	Employees and their non-working dependents	UP System	ongoing	More than 200 UPM employees and 323 dependents availed of the benefit for 1 st sem AY 2016-2017 and second sem AY 2015-2016

Provision of free basic health services through the Community Health and Development Program	UPM colleges	Barangays in the AMIGA (Amadeo, Mendez, Indang, General Trias and Alfonso) Zone in Cavite	UP Manila	Started in Aug 2014; ongoing	Healthier and more empowered barangays of the participating towns
Provision of free basic health services through the Return Service Agreement	Office of Alumni Affairs/Graduates of the health colleges of UPM for June 2015 and 2016	Filipinos in different parts of the country where the said graduates are deployed	UP Manila	ongoing	Availability of about 1000 graduates of the health professions to render services every year based on their professions to different communities nationwide
School of Health Sciences' community-based and ladderized curriculum	UP Manila	Poor but committed medical students from the provinces for the Doctor of Community Program and nursing and midwifery students for the BSN and Cert in Com Health Work, respectively	UP Manila	ongoing	Availability of additional graduates of nursing, medicine, and midwifery in remote and underserved communities
Newborn Screening (RA 9288)	National Institutes of Health	All Filipino newborns for possible genetic and metabolic disorders and management for those found positive for these disorders	UP Manila	ongoing	More than 120,000 newborns screened 5,000 + health facilities participating
Screening for hearing defects and visual screening for selected elementary	National Institutes of	Filipino newborns for hearing screening and	Dept of Health, National Institutes of Health	Ongoing but staggered	Newborns and other young children given early hearing intervention;

schoolchildren	Health	elementary schoolkids for visual screening		implementation	schoolchildren participating in the study given early intervention to correct lazy eye and refraction errors
----------------	--------	--	--	----------------	--

KRA 2. Good Governance and Anti-Corruption

Compliance with the Requirements of the Transparency Seal	UP Manila	Stakeholders and the general public		ongoing	Fully posted requirements of the Transparency seal at the UPM website
Creation of three levels of the Bids and Awards Committee (BAC 1, 2, 3 and 5 Special BAC)	UPM	Bidders and the univ constituents		ongoing
Sectoral consultations	UPM	Different sectors in the univ, faculty, REPS, adm staff, nurses, students, alumni		ongoing	Adequate sectoral representation in planning and decision making
Creation and nurturance of different organizations for faculty, employees, students and alumni	UPM	All constituents, including alumni		ongoing	Constant dialogue with each group to know their issues, concerns, and needs
Additional sectoral representation in the UP Board of Regents to include faculty regent, staff regent, and student regent and rotation in the election of added regents among the UP campuses	UP System	University constituents	UP System	ongoing	More transparent, democratic and just decision making and policy and guideline formulation

KRA 3: Rapid, inclusive and sustained economic growth

Construction of new NIH building	National govt and UP Manila	Filipinos	UP System and national government	Expected completion in July 2019	Will strengthen and boost health research thru modern and adequate laboratories and offices that will in turn, translate to more evidence-based health policies and programs
Forums and studies on University Health Care implementation	UPM and NIH

Community Health and Development Program	UPM	6 towns in Cavite comprising the AMIGA Inter-local Zone	UP Manila	ongoing	Provision of basic health services and health education and training for mothers and other residents
Education and training of a cadre of public health professionals who occupy key posts at national and local organizations	UPM College of Public Health	DOH national and local offices, local govt units, industries and development agencies, remote communities and barangays	UP Manila	ongoing	Filipinos, particularly those in remote and depressed areas
Regular course offerings on public health issues, and related topics on health and the allied sciences	Different UPM colleges	Health professionals nationwide	UP Manila	ongoing	Increased capabilities of public health workers to provide solutions to urgent health problems of the country thus leading to improved productivity of the people and boosting the economy
Offering of new degree programs that respond to the needs of the people, such as MS Genetics Counseling, MS Health Informatics, MS Medical Anthropology, etc	UPM	Health and allied science professionals	UP Manila	ongoing	First batch of students of the MS Genetics Counseling course graduated in June 2015
Existing courses, such as BA Social Sciences, BA Development Studies, BA Philippine Arts, BA Behavioral Studies	UPM-CAS	Government entities, local government units, nongovernment organizations	UP Manila	ongoing	Availability of more competent and trained professionals to determine social, economic, political and cultural realities in the national system and craft appropriate programs and solutions
Return Service Agreement	UPM	Philippine communities nationwide	UP Manila	ongoing	Additional number of health professionals serving the countryside through the graduates of UPM that are deployed in different strategic areas
Strengthening of the School of Health Sciences in Baler, Aurora and SHS Koronadal City, South Cotabato	UPM	Towns of Aurora and South Cotabato and even adjacent	UP Manila	ongoing	Construction of more facilities and availability of more competent doctors, nurses, and midwives to serve in remote provinces			and underserved communities

KRA 4: Just and Lasting Peace and the Rule of Law
Manila Studies Program Child Protection Unit	UPM CAS PGH	City of Manila Abused children nationwide	UP Manila PGH	ongoing ongoing	CPU has led to the setting up of 73 Women and Child Protection Units across 41 provinces and 9 independent cities together with 148 CPU extensions that provide services to nearly 70% of all abused children and their families in the country.
Center for Gender and Women Studies	UPM	All genders, particularly women	UP Manila	ongoing	Provision of gender orientation trainings and awareness to constituents and preparation of gender development plans for each office of the university that address gender concerns and issues
Office of Anti-Sexual Harassment	UPM	UPM constituents	UP Manila	ongoing	Provides services to women employees and other victims of sexual harassment in the workplace, such as orientations and seminars and grievance mechanisms
Researches on Indigenous People and other marginalized sectors in the Philippines	UPM-CAS	Indigenous people in different provinces	UP Manila, NIH	ongoing	Provide a deeper understanding of the culture and way of life of this sector and how their welfare and well-being can be promoted
Researches on illnesses that afflict the poor and marginalized and vulnerable sectors, such as leptospirosis, malaria, schistosomiasis, maternal and child health issues,	NIH, colleges, Manila Studies Program	Poor and vulnerable sectors	UP Manila, NIH, other funding institutions	ongoing	Development of more appropriate solutions and interventions to address these sectors' health problems
KRA 5: Integrity of the Environment and Climate Change Adaptation and Mitigation
Good Neighbors Initiative	UPM and	Residents and	Shared pool of resources	ongoing	Implementation of clean up drives, neighboring institutions	workers of establishments in Manila	of member-institutions		greening projects, coordination with the Manila City Hall to rid streets of illegal vendors, illegal parking areas and hasten security efforts

Cleaning, Greening, and Securing of Campus	UPM, colleges	UPM campus	UP Manila	ongoing	Landscaping of college/unit facades, setting up of pocket gardens at the PGH 8 th floor, installing CCTVs in strategic areas
Researches on environmental issues and climate change concerns	CPH, CAS, NIH	Philippines	UP Manila and donors	ongoing	Evidence-based data and information on environmental health issues that can be used as basis for policy formulation and preparedness program planning
Master of Public Health, Master of Science in Public Health	UPM-CPH	Whole country	UP Manila	ongoing	Competent public health practitioners to serve in different parts of the country
Regular postgrad courses on Environmental Health, Emergency and Disaster Management and Preparedness, Occupational Health, Biorisk Officers training	UPM-CPH, NIH	Country	UP Manila, DOH and other partners	ongoing	Increased availability of trained and competent public health workers to address the urgent need for a more comprehensive preparation and response program for disaster and emergency management and risk reduction
CPH as SEAMEO TROPMED Center for Public Health, Hospital Administration and Environmental and Occupational Health	SEAMEO-TROPMED	Philippines	SEAMEO TROPMED	ongoing	Long years of collaboration has led to joint projects in teaching, research and exchange programs that are helping the quality of public health services in the region and the Philippines
Regular drills on earthquake, bomb, and fire preparedness	UP Manila	UPM constituents	UP Manila	ongoing	A more prepared constituency on what to do and compliance with all guidelines during calamities and disasters to ensure safety, survival and recovery